

Brian Eckel, co-founder and Partner of Cape Fear Commercial, oversees strategic planning, in addition to leading the firm's Development Services Division. He has extensive experience specializing in Corporate Advisory Services and is recognized as one of the most experienced and capable practitioners in the field, having earned a Dual Specialist SIOR designation (for Industrial and Office) from the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors. Eckel has played a role in the development of more than 26 Walgreens stores throughout the Carolinas; 500 apartment homes; multiple office buildings, to include 101 North Third, a new five-story Class A office building in downtown Wilmington; and just recently broke ground on Wilmington's first Publix Grocery.