

GEORGE L. STROBEL, II

George Strobel is co-founder of State Tax Credit Exchange and serves as Director of Sales and Credit. Applying his extensive acumen in accounting matters and familiarity with federal and state tax regulations, Mr. Strobel works with investors and advisors to help identify which tax credit investments and structures best suit client needs and business objectives while optimizing their savings.

Mr. Strobel has been working with tax credit investments since co-founding STCE in 2004, prior to which he served as Partner at Arthur Andersen, and Associate Director of the Arthur Andersen Center for Family Business. His clientele for financial and estate planning has included many individuals and family businesses from among the US Forbes 400 list.

Concurrent to his work with STCE, Mr. Strobel serves as Managing Director for Perigee Group, a boutique consultancy firm specializing in investment, tax, estate and succession planning.

George Strobel earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Davidson College, a Master's in Accounting and Tax, and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Georgia. He is an active member of the Georgia Bar and is a Certified Public Accountant in Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee and Florida. He is a registered Investment Advisor and a licensed Life Insurance Agent.
